ROSE IN CASE OF THOMPSON AND WOODWARD-ALL OF THE COURTS ARE

Alexander D. Thompson and Joseph Woodward, the tax office clerks indicted at a former term for embezzlement of public money, jointly in five separate true bills found, appeared for trial before Judge De Bolt this morn

On the carling of a jury for the firs case, Mr. Douthitt for the Territory asked for a separate trial of defend-This was granted. Then the prosecuting attorney produced authoriies on the subject of confession

Geo. A. Davis for the defendant saw he drift of the prosecution and asked that the jurors be excused while the raised by Mr. Douthitt under discussion. The jurors having gone out, Mr. Davis protested strenu ously against the evident design of the prosecution to use one of the joint defendants as a government witness against the other. He contended that Woodward could not be placed on the stand until his own case had been disposed of, either by a plea of guilty or nolle prosequi.

Judge De Bolt sald he would rule on the point when Woodward was offered as a witness. The empaneling of jury to try Thompson was then proceeded with but not completed before noon recess.

The small Island schoopers seem to have developed a business between this port and the other side of the island. This morning a couple of these vessels which have figured but very little in the shipping lately, start ed out. They are both old vessels which have been fitted out again by Japanese. Of these the old Rob Roy started for Waialua this morning while the old Mokihana, which here ofore has only run as far as Waialua tailed for Waialua and Koolau ports. She will hereafter regularly prolong her itinerary so as to take in both Waiilua and Koolauloa ports.

LEGATION FIRE

We are courteously informed by the rench Consul that, about 10 o'clock this morning, the house of Azabu, Tokyo, into which Vicomte Dejean, attache of the French Legation, had just mov-ed, was burnt to the ground in ten ninutes. The victomte had formed a very valuable collection of Japanese curios-old prints principallly-which we fear has been destroyed. We ten-ler our condolences to the popular French secretary.

Later we are informed by our Tokyc correspondent that the house was close to the American Legation: The fire however was prevented from spreading by the exertions of the fire brigade the students of the Okura Commercia school and soldiers sent from Prince Komatsu's residence.
